Declassified in Part - Sanitiz	ted Copy Approved for Release 2012/10/02	50X1-HUM 2 : CIA-RDP82-00457R009000120006-0
COUNTRY Gormany (Sovi	et Zene) SECURITY INFORM	ATTION REPOR
	at the Altengrabow Training Area
EVALUATION_	PLACE OBTAINED_
DATE OF CONTENT		and the same of th
DATE OBTAINED	DATE PREPARED	25 September 1951
REFERENCES	and the management of the state
PAGES EN	CLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
REMARKS		or waterials also clarifying the hospital and management of the state
	THE SECRETARY WAS AND AND COMMON THE COMMON TO SECRETARY OF THE COMMON THE CO	MENOCHICA COLO VI STANIBA COMMENTA INSCRIPTO INSCRIPTO CONTROL CONTROL ACCORDINATION CONTROL C
SECURITION OF THE PROPERTY OF		term-dates (Christopher Grandwards) and file (Christopher Torright Scholars State State (Christopher Grandwards State State (Christopher Grandwards State State (Christopher Grandwards State State (Christopher Grandwards State S
ementeria en en empleo de la secución de la Pério del Pério de la Pério del Pério de la Pério del Pério de la Pério del Pério de la Pério de la Pério de la Pério de la Pério del Pério de la Pério de la Pério del Pério	APPENDENT SOCIAL CONTROL OF THE CONTROL OF CONTROL OF THE CONTROL OF T	50X1-HUM
1. On 25 August	1951. 20 x 45-rm AT guns and an und	letermined number of motor vehicles, bow (1 53/2 00) railroad station.
(1) On the sa	ame day, soldiors were soon parachut	te jumping from a captive balloon
over the train	- ,
toward liagde	14 trucks, which moved along the Doe burgerforth on 3 September, carried	about 300 troops wearing red-bordered blaguns.	ck enaulets, mostly with artillery i	insignia, and towed four 57-mm AT
	After an interval of about 15 min and 2 six-wheel armored personnel of	nutes, the convoy was followed by paracusol.	and a six-wiser armored bersonder of	balliging and outlying to outle
3. From 30 to 40 artillery pieces of undetermined type were parked in open shed the ordnance lot. About 350 troops, organized in plateons of about 35 men ea marching out trucks stand	and carrying hand arms, trenching tools, and silhouette targets, were seen marching out of the North Camp. Billeting equipment was unloaded from several50X1-HUM trucks standing in the camp yard. Pight heavy artillery pieces without muzzle brakes stood were seen en	in an open shed, "rucks tering the camp, About 130 trucks, 1	but no guns, were seen on the ordnance lot	'o
ц. Trucks		were seen hauling in Altengrat were seen at	seen hauling gasoline barrels from four railroad cars standing at the barracks yard in Altengrabow toward the amuunition depot. Five occupied low wooden buildings were seen at the depot. Three wooden buildings, with trucks and guns parked nearby, were seen at the filling plant of the depot.
5. An artillery	5. An artillery unit, with 12 x 122-mm guns and 25 to 30 trucks, bivouacked in a patch of woods at marker 103 about 2.5 km south of Gross Luchars. Trucks 50X1-riving toward this bivouae site.
		•
	CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US O	50X1-HUM
	CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US C
		50X1-HŪM
	100
		avere ·

	d in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2012/10/02 : CIA-RDP82-00457R009000120006-0
	50X1-HUM
	SECRET /C MEDIOT /IC OF TOTAL OF THE SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS OFFI
	SECURITY TRIFORMATION
6	Reports of artillery pieces were heard from the artillery range at irregular intervals throughout the day
	50X1-H
	. (2)
	•
7	At the beginning of September, troops were repeatedly seen practicing with gas masks. (3)
0	A heavy AAA unit was unloaded at the Altengrahow regilroad station from a 30-car train on 29 Augusta
	(h) On the same day, a train carrying eight
	Left Altengrabow. (5) A train of 30 cars with troops and vehicles.
	was dignatehod on l
	and vehicles
4	same day. (6) Two troop twoins were dispatched on the same day. (6) Two troop trains were dispatched from Altengrabow to Altenburg on 6 September. One train was loaded with eight long-barreled 122-mm guns and yehicles, VOI.202019 1
	the other train carried 76-rm At come and walking
	The other train carried 76-mm AA muns and vehicles
	The other train carried 76-mm AA muns and vehicles (7)
9.	(7)
9.	Russian girls in civilian clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August a the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were
9.	(7)
9.	Russian girls in civilion clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August a the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8)
9.	Russian girls in civilion chothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August a the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8)
	Russian girls in civilion clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August a the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments.
	Russian girls in civilian clothes , who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August a the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) Comments. The train
	Russian girls in civilion clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August a the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments.
1)	Russian girls in civilian clothes , who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August a the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) Comments. The train
	Russian girls in civilion elothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August a the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Meuruppin.
1)	Russian girls in civilian elothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August a the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) Comments. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Meuruppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The webieles absorbed
1)	Russian girls in civilian elothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Meuruppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arriv Brig. precisibly the 2d Sec.
1)	Russian girls in civilion clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Seuruppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds, of the LXXIX litz file Corps. the unidentified artillery division in Retaining the
1)	Russian girls in civilian clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) Comments. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Meuruppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds, of the IXXIX litz Tifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potedam, the 6th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AAA Div possibly the 32s
1)	Russian girls in civilian clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) Comments. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Neuruppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Sds, of the IXXIX Mtz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potedem, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AAA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div, and the unidentified AAA Div, possibly the 32d.
1)	Russian girls in civilian clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Heuruppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds, of the IXXIX Mtz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potedem, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AAA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds. In addition, individual vehicles
1)	Russian girls in civilian clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Convents. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Neuroppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d 3ds, of the IXXIX Mtz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potedem, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AAA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d 3ds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to the unidentified Mortan Brig.
1)	Russian girls in civilion chothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Convents. The train carried a component of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Seuruppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds, of the IXXIX litz iffle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potedem, the Sth Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AAA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery biveace belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Mortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps, the
1)	Russian girls in civilian clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Seuruppin. The setimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds, of the IXXIX litz iffle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potsdem, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AMA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Morar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gun Arty Brig, possibly the high; the 136th Gds My Tank SP Beet. Ma
[2]	Russian girls in civilion clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August a the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Meuruppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d dds, of the IXXIX litz "iffle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potedem, the 6th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d dds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Mortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gun Arty Brig, possibly the highth; the 136th Gds Hv Tank SP Regt; Hq Third Shock Army; and Hg First Mecz Dive
[2]	Russian girls in civilian clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Convents. The train carried a component of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Meuruppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds, of the IXXIX Mtz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Poteden, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AMA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Mortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gun Arty Brig, possibly the 4lpth; the 136th Gds Hv Tank 6P Regt; Hq Third Shock Army; and Hq First Mecz Div. Intensified gas-defense training was also reported from other trees training
(3)	Russian girls in civilian clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments. The train carried a comment of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Seuruppin, The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d 3ds, of the LXXIX litz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potedam, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AAA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d 3ds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Nortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gum Arty Brig, possibly the 4hth; the 136th Gds Hv Tank SP Regt; Hq Third Shock Army; and Hq First Mecz Div. Intensified gas—defense training was also reported from other troop training grounds and military posts of the Soviet Zone of Germany. 50X1-H
(3)	Russian girls in civilian clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Convents. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Seuruppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds, of the IXXIX litz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potedem, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AAA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Nortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gun Arty Brig, possibly the light, the 136th Gds Hv Tank SP Rogt; Hq Third Shock Army; and Hq First Mecz Dive Intensified gas-defense training was also reported from other troop training grounds and military posts of the Soviet Zone of Germany. The train which
(3)	Russian girls in civilian clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Convents. The train carried a component of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Heuruppin. The estimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d 3ds, of the IXXIX lits "ifle Gorps, the unidentified artillery division in Potedem, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AAA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d 3ds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Mortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gun Arty Brig, possibly the 4hth; the 136th Gds Hv Tank SP Rogt; Hq Third Shock Army; and Hq First Mecz Div. Intensified gas-defense training was also reported from other troop training grounds and military posts of the Soviet Zone of Germany. 50X1-H The train which en route from Potesdam
(3) (h)	Russian girls in civilian atothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) Comments. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Seuruppin. The stimute of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d dds, of the LXXIX litz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potedem, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AMA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d dds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Mortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gun Arty Brig, possibly the lighth; the 136th dds Hv Tank SP Ragt; Hq Indientified gas-defense training was also reported from other troop training grounds and military posts of the Soviet Zone of Germany. The train which Gds AAA Div was probably en Toute from Potedan to "Itemgrabow."
(3) (h)	Russian girls in civilian abothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments. The train carried a comment of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably ment to Teuruppin. The satirate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d 3ds, of the LXXIX Hz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potsdem, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified MA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Mortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gum Arty Brig, possibly the highth; the 136th dds Hv Tank SP Regt; Hq Third Shock Army; and Hq First Hecz Div. The train which Gds AAA Div was probably the Soviet Zone of Germany. The train which the train posts of the Soviet Zone of Germany. The train which the representative a component of the 2d on route from Potsdam to "Itengrabow.
(3)	Russian girls in civilian atothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) Convents. The train carried a commonent of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably went to Jeuruppin. The stirate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 32 dds, of the LXXIX Htz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillory division in Potsdam, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AAA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d dds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Mortor Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gum Arty Brig, possibly the highth; the 136th dds Hv Tank SP Regt; Hq Intensified gas-defense training was also reported from other troop training grounds and military posts of the Soviet Zone of Germany. SOX1-H train which dis AAA Div was probably and the square of Germany.
(3) (4)	Russian girls in civilian abothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments. The train carried a comment of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably ment to Teuruppin. The satirate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d 3ds, of the LXXIX Hz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potsdem, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified MA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Mortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gum Arty Brig, possibly the highth; the 136th dds Hv Tank SP Regt; Hq Third Shock Army; and Hq First Hecz Div. The train which Gds AAA Div was probably the Soviet Zone of Germany. The train which the train posts of the Soviet Zone of Germany. The train which the representative a component of the 2d on route from Potsdam to "Itengrabow.
(3) (4)	Russian girls in civilian abothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments. The train carried a comment of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably ment to Teuruppin. The satirate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d 3ds, of the LXXIX Hz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potsdem, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified MA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Mortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gum Arty Brig, possibly the highth; the 136th dds Hv Tank SP Regt; Hq Third Shock Army; and Hq First Hecz Div. The train which Gds AAA Div was probably the Soviet Zone of Germany. The train which the train posts of the Soviet Zone of Germany. The train which the representative a component of the 2d on route from Potsdam to "Itengrabow.
(3) (4)	Russian girls in civilian clothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) Convents. 50X1-HUM Convents. The train carried a commonant of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably wont to Heuruppin. The setimate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d dds, of the LXXIX Htz "iffe Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Poteden, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified AA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified A Tarty Brig, possibly the 3d dds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Nortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Cun Arty Brig, possibly the high the 136th dds Hv Tank SP Regt; Hq Third Shock Army; and Hq First Mecz Div. Intensified gas-defense training was also reported from other troop training grounds and military posts of the Soviet zone of Germany. The train which Corrected a component of the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the hth Cds of the IX Etz Eifle Corps.
(3) (4)	Russian girls in civilian abothes, who arrived at Altengrabow at the end of August at the beginning of September, were issued uniforms by the troops there. They were to replace German work personnel. (8) 50X1-HUM Comments. The train carried a comment of the 12th Gds Tank Div and probably ment to Teuruppin. The satirate of 15,000 troops there, as stated in the present report, approximately equals the total billeting capacity. The vehicles observed in the training area belong to the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d 3ds, of the LXXIX Hz "ifle Corps, the unidentified artillery division in Potsdem, the 5th Arty Div, the 10th Gds Tank Div and the unidentified MA Div, possibly the 32d. The vehicles observed at the artillery bivouse belong to the 6th Arty Div and the unidentified AT Arty Brig, possibly the 3d Gds. In addition, individual vehicles of units other than those mentioned above belong to: the unidentified Mortar Brig, possibly the 65th of the 6th Arty Div; the 25th RL Brig of the IV Arty Corps; the unidentified Gum Arty Brig, possibly the highth; the 136th dds Hv Tank SP Regt; Hq Third Shock Army; and Hq First Hecz Div. The train which Gds AAA Div was probably the Soviet Zone of Germany. The train which the train posts of the Soviet Zone of Germany. The train which the representative a component of the 2d on route from Potsdam to "Itengrabow.

SWALT/CONTROL/US CT/ICIAIS oned	50X1-HUM
•	50X1-HUM
SECULLITY THE COMMATION
the two outgoing trains catellory brigade of the XXV	rried III 172
the 43d (Gds) Gun Arty Briz of the Nichth Can Arty Briz of the Nichth Can Arty
lay 1951. Since the beg	inning of 50X1-H
he information does not necessarily indicate that the incompirits were always issued uniforms. Articles of military clothered by the content of the content	ing Soviet 50X1-H

SPORET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY